Gold Coin

We welcome new members and novice bowlers on Saturdays at 12.45pm and Tuesdays at 9.45am

The serious competition is over, now for the fun. The first, of many, Gold Coin games began on Saturday, a beautiful day to be out on the green. The money was won by Macca, SallyR, Jill and Roger.

Gold Coin is open to all members especially new and beginners. You'll get friendly hints if needed and all your bowling questions answered.

Social Bowls on Friday Evenings 4.30pm – don't have to bowl, come along for a drink and chat.

MONDAY AND THURSDAY TRAINING SESSIONS 4-6pm

These are run by our Coach and, again, everyone is welcome. It's a good opportunity to get great advice if you are just starting out at this wonderful game.

TWILIGHT LEAGUE

This week 14 people played in a couple of pairs games and one triples match. Despite (or perhaps because of!) her absence, Sue maintains her spot at the top of the table, although with his 6-shot win in the triples over Gerry, Dot and Andy, Bob jumped to 2nd, with fellow triples players, Dick and David following him into 3rd and 4th. In the pairs, Ken and Ian had a 7 shot win over Sally and Peter, while after a slow start, Tim and Jan overcame Lindsay and Jenny by 9 shots.

After 4 rounds the league table reads:

Position	Name	Points
1	Sue Macca	25
2	Bob Adler	21
3	Dick Swift	20
4	David Huggins	19
5	Andy Owens	12
6	Ken Bunning	10
7	Ian Fisher	8
8	Sally Rushbrook	7
=	Jan Brooksbank	7
=	Julie Fisher	7
11	Tim Smith	0
12	Jenny Condon	-2
13	Peter Lee	-9
14	Lindsay Chaloner	-12
15	Graeme Macca	-15
16	Gerry Smith	-22
=	Ray James	-22
18	Rex Magnusson	-23
19	Dot Olive	-31

Next week Lindsay will be organising the show so please help her by turning up in good time to ensure a prompt start to play. With the pennant season over, Twilight is now the only competitive bowls at AP (with real money prizes no less!).

Great bowling everyone Tim
